PROVINCIAL SECRETARY.

"TRADE-SCHOOLS REGULATION ACT."

March 30th, 1937.

PURSUANT to the provisions of section 11 of the "Trade-schools Regulation Act," being chapter 54 of the Statutes of British Columbia, 1936 (Second Session), His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to make the following regulations:—

SPECIAL REGULATIONS GOVERNING HAIRDRESSING-SCHOOLS.

1. Hours.—The hours of instruction for students in hairdressing-schools shall be as follows: Monday to Friday, inclusive, 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Saturday, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Every student must be allowed a lunch and rest period of one hour between the hours of 12 noon and 2 p.m.

Each student shall receive not less than two hours' class instruction every school-day except Saturday.

2. Course of Study.—A full course of study in hairdressing shall consist of not less than one thousand hours' instruction. Accurate records shall be kept of the hours during which each student attends the school, and no diploma or certificate of proficiency shall be issued to a student by the proprietor or operator of any school until the student has completed such full course of study.

3. Contract.—No student may commence work in a hairdressing-school until a contract, approved by the Minister of Labour, has been completed between such student and the proprietor or operator of the school, and has obtained a permit in accordance with the provisions of the "Hairdressers Act."

4. Services.—A student shall not work in a hairdressing-shop, neither can a hairdressing-school be situated on the same premises as a hairdressing-shop.

All persons obtaining service in a hairdressing-school must do so as models for the instruction of students.

A charge for material used or for the services of any student must in no case exceed the following scale:—

|  | Cents. |

| Facial, maximum charge .....                               | 25     |

The charge for any service not listed shall not exceed 5 cents.

A person holding a certificate of proficiency in hairdressing issued by the Hairdressers' Association of British Columbia shall not perform any act of hairdressing in a hairdressing-school except in the capacity of instructor to students, excepting in the case of a graduate student of the school, who may continue to receive instruction for a period of three months immediately following his becoming a certificated operator under the provisions of the "Hairdressers Act."

5. Advertising.—The authorized charges for material must not be used in any advertising, and the use of any advertising relating to any hairdressing-school which may tend to mislead is prohibited, and the keeper or operator of any such school may be required to discontinue any specified advertisement or means of advertisement.

6. Signs and Notices.—Hairdressing-schools must carry a sign outside their premises in conformity with section 7, subsection (9), of the "Hairdressers Act," and must also post within the premises notices to the satisfaction of the Minister of Labour, informing the general public seeking service that such service can be rendered only by students.

A notice setting forth the maximum charges must be displayed in front of each chair where the public is treated, but in such a manner as not to be readable from outside the premises.

Any attempt to indicate to the general public that a hairdressing-shop is operated on school premises will make registration liable to immediate cancellation.

7. Health, Sanitary, and Safety Regulations.—Every proprietor or operator of a hairdressing-school shall be responsible for the proper carrying-out of all health, sanitary, and safety regulations upon and within the school premises.

8. Fees.—The fees for registration and renewal of registration under the Act shall be $5 per annum: Provided that where any other trade-school is carried on on the same premises as a hairdressing-school the fees for registration and renewal of registration shall be $5 per annum in respect of the hairdressing-school and $2 per annum in respect of each additional trade-school carried on on the premises, with a maximum total fee of $25.

9. Posting Regulations.—A copy of these regulations must be posted in plain view within the school premises.

SPECIAL REGULATIONS GOVERNING BARBER-SCHOOLS.

1. Hours.—The hours of instruction for students in barber-schools shall be as follows: Monday to Friday, inclusive, 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Saturday, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Every student shall be allowed a lunch and rest period of one hour between the hours of 12 noon and 2 p.m.

Each student shall receive not less than two hours' class instruction every school-day except Saturday.

2. Course of Study.—A full course of study in barbering shall consist of not less than one thousand hours' instruction. Accurate records shall be kept of the hours during which each student attends the school, and no diploma or certificate of proficiency shall be issued to a student by the proprietor or operator of any school until the student has completed such full course of study.

3. Contract.—No student may commence work in a barber-school until a contract, approved by the Minister of Labour, has been completed between such student and the proprietor or operator of the school.

4. Medical Certificate.—No student shall be enrolled until he has obtained a medical certificate certifying that he is free from all infectious or contagious disease. Such medical certificate shall be deposited with the operator of the trade-school where the same shall be available for inspection at all times.

5. Services.—A barber-school shall not be situated on the same premises as a barber-shop.

A person holding a certificate of proficiency in barbering issued by the Barbers' Association of British Columbia shall not perform any act of barbering in a barber-school except in the capacity of instructor to students.

A charge for material used or for the services of any student must in no case exceed the following scale:—

|                                   | Cents. |
|-----------------------------------|--------|
| Haircutting, maximum charge ..... | 5      |
| Shaving, maximum charge .....     | 5      |
| Shampooing, maximum charge .....  | 5      |
| Facials, maximum charge .....     | 10     |

The charge for any operation not listed shall not exceed 5 cents.

The public shall be served only between the hours of 1 p.m. and 6 p.m. At other hours during which the school is open service shall be rendered only to non-paying clients serving as models.

6. Signs and Notices.—Barber-schools must carry a sign outside their premises in conformity with section 17 of the "Barbers Act," and must also post within the premises notices to the satisfaction of the Minister of Labour, informing the general public seeking service that such service can be rendered only by students or persons who have not yet passed the qualifying examination in this Province.

A notice setting forth the maximum charges must be displayed in front of each chair where the public is treated, but in such a manner as not to be readable from outside the premises.

Any attempt to indicate to the general public that a barber-shop is operated on school premises will make registration liable to immediate cancellation.

7. Advertising.—The use of any advertising relating to any barber-school which may tend to mislead is prohibited, and the keeper or operator of any such school may be required to discontinue any specified advertisement or means of advertisement.

8. Health, Sanitary, and Safety Regulations.—Every proprietor or operator of a barber-school shall be responsible for the proper carrying-out of all health, sanitary, and safety regulations upon and within the school premises.

9. Fees.—The fees for registration and renewal of registration under the Act shall be $5 per annum: Provided that where any other trade-school is carried on on the same premises as a barber-school the fees for registration and renewal of registration shall be $5 per annum in respect of the barber-school and $2 per annum in respect of each additional trade-school carried on on the premises, with a maximum total fee of $25.

10. Posting Regulations.—A copy of these regulations must be posted in plain view within the school premises. 96-ap1

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

(a.) A printed copy of such Bill:

(b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:

(c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¼ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

"SOCIETIES ACT."

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

No. 2341.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "The Reclamation Farmers Association" has this day been incorporated as a Society under the "Societies Act."

The locality in which the operations of the Society will be chiefly carried on is Creston, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and Seal of Office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this eleventh day of March, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven.

Deputy Registrar of Companies.

The objects of the Society are:—

(a.) To form an association pursuant to the terms of certain agreements for sale bearing date as of the 28th day of January, 1935, being in respect of Lot 774 and Lot 12843, in the Kootenay District, in the Province of British Columbia:

(b.) To apply for, secure, hold, and use all rights for reclaiming and improving land by dyking, damming, or draining, and to take all steps necessary or incidental thereto, and to enjoy the full benefit of and the rights conferred by the "Navigable Waters Protection Act" of Canada and any amendment or amendments thereto:

(c.) To erect, construct, improve, maintain, operate, and otherwise use and employ dykes, dams, drainage-works, pumping plants, bridges, fences, and buildings on Lots 774 and 12843, in the Kootenay District, in the Province of British Columbia, and on such additional property as the Association may from time to time acquire, and to acquire rights and licences over the said lands, and generally to perform such work and to erect and construct such works upon as may be necessary to prevent the flooding or inundation of the said lands, with a view to enabling farming operations to be carried on thereon, and to make the said lands habitable. The expression "the said lands" as used herein shall mean the said Lot 774 and Lot 12843, Kootenay District, and such additional lands as may be acquired by or farmed, owned, or operated by the Association or its members:

(d.) To supervise, manage, control, and do all things necessary for the proper maintenance, upkeep, rehabilitation, and repair of any dykes, dams, drainage-works, pumping plants, bridges, fences, buildings, and other works now or hereafter to be erected or constructed on or about the said lands:

(e.) To supervise, direct, and control for the benefit of its members the farming, cultivation, and seeding of the said lands, to the end that all farms thereon shall be worked systematically and for the greatest benefit and advantage of all members of the Association, and generally to perform such work as may be necessary or advisable for the betterment and improvement of the said lands or any part thereof:

(f.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise acquire and hold real or personal property of any description, and all rights, benefits, privileges, and interests which may be deemed necessary or advisable for the purpose of advancing, directly or indirectly, the objects and interests of the Association and the members thereof; provided always that the power to acquire lands additional to Lots 774 and 12843, whether by purchase, lease, gift, or otherwise howsoever, shall be exercised only after the passing of an extraordinary resolution approving of such acquisition at a duly constituted special or general meeting of the Association called for the purpose of considering and, if thought fit, of passing a resolution authorizing such acquisition:

(g.) To enter into contracts with any person, firm, or corporation, and to employ agents for the purpose of carrying out all or any of the objects of the Association:

(h.) To promote unity and good-will among its members, and to maintain and foster the interests and well-being of the members of the Association:

(i.) Subject to the provisions contained in the "Societies Act" and any amendments thereto, to borrow or raise and secure the payment of money in such manner as the Association sees fit; provided that the exercise of the borrowing-powers of the Association shall be subject to the approval of the trustee or trustees of the reserve fund referred to in the by-laws of the Association, and shall not be exercised without his or their consent previously obtained in writing; and provided further that the said trustee or trustees shall have the right at all times to accept, vary, alter, amend, or reject any or all of the terms upon which it is proposed to raise or borrow moneys and to secure the same, and if such approval shall not have been obtained in writing from the trustee prior to the meeting at which the resolution aforesaid is proposed to be submitted, then such resolution shall not be submitted to or passed at any such meeting:

(j.) To make rules, regulations, ordinances, by-laws, or other provisions from time to time with respect to the method of farming, cultivating, seeding, or harvesting the said lands; the nature of the crop with which each portion of the said lands may be seeded annually; the rotation of crops; the control and destruction of noxious weeds, pestiferous insects, or destructive animals; for the protection of the dykes; the combating of diseases which may from time to time attack any crops on the said lands; the laying-out of the seasonal programme of work and farming operations of each individual farm on the said lands; for the making or excavation of borrow-pits upon the said lands or any part thereof for the purpose of constructing, maintaining, repairing, strengthening, or heightening any dyke or dam upon or adjacent to the said lands; for requiring members to work on the said dykes at any time of emergency; for taking all steps necessary to prevent acts of trespass on the said lands; for the sale and harvesting of any crops from the said lands or any portion thereof:

(k.) To participate in or secure or acquire the benefits for the members of the Association of any marketing schemes of the Governments of the Dominion of Canada or the Province of British Columbia:

(l.) To investigate and negotiate for the adjustment and settlement of any dispute which may arise between members of the Association or between any member or members of the Association and any other party or parties:

(m.) To provide meeting-places for members of the Association:

(n.) To erect, maintain, and operate grain-elevators for the benefit of the members of the Association, and to make arrangements for and enter into contracts in connection with the marketing of produce produced upon the said lands:

(o.) To maintain, operate, or conduct experimental forms, experimental areas, plots, or stations, illustration stations, and other areas to be used for experimental work for the benefit of the members:

(p.) To hold, maintain, improve, develop, operate, lease, charter, hire, sell, or otherwise deal with and turn to account any real or personal property of the Association, or which in the opinion of the Committee of the Association, may be advantageously maintained, improved, developed, or operated by the Association:

(q.) To sell, exchange, or otherwise dispose of any of the Association's holdings or assets, real or personal (other than the said reserve fund referred to in the by-laws of the Association), either for a cash consideration or for a consideration of shares, debentures, or securities of any company, wheresoever incorporated, or partly in one and partly in the other:

(r.) To insure against loss, damage, risks, and liabilities of all kinds which may affect the Association or any of its members:

(s.) To make gifts or donations to any person, firm, or corporation for any purpose whatsoever, whether such person, firm, or corporation be a member of the Association or not:

(t.) To carry out all or any of the objects or purposes of the Association, and to do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, directors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(u.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objects and the exercise of the powers of the Association:

(v.) To become a member of any association, society, or other organization which the Committee consider advisable or in the interests of the members.
